

Watershed Rangers Program

2016-17

Ruby Bridges third graders picking up trash at Crab Cove in Alameda.

Henry Haight third grade student presenting the "Litter Critter" he created from trash found on the schoolyard.

Edison third graders investigating San Francisco Bay geography.

Bay Farm fourth grade students picking up trash at the bay shoreline.

City of Alameda
Public Works Department
Public Works Works for You!

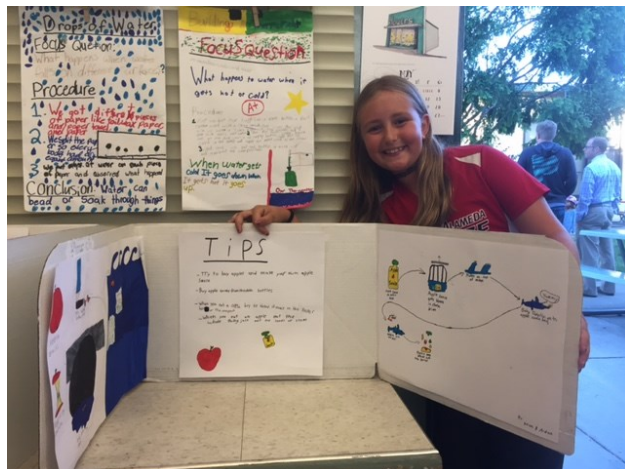

Highlights

Bay Farm fourth graders dissecting an Albatross Bolus and separating natural items the bird digested from plastic debris.

A shrimp made by a third grader from Henry Haight Elementary and a story about the creature.

Edison Elementary third grade student standing by her project that displayed the importance of keeping water clean.

Edison third grade proudly standing by the trash they picked up from their shoreline clean-up Action Project.